BONUS BILL LOADED WITH NEW RIDER TO CONVERT PRESIDENT

Amendment Would Use Allied Debt Interest and Also Tap Treasury.

LAST DESPERATE PLAN

McNary Scheme to Reclaim Land Adopted to Construction of McCumber.

SALES TAX IS COMING UP

Vote on Raid Measure To-morrow Is Probable—Harding Reported Unchanged.

By LOUIS SEIBOLD.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

New York, Aug. 29. (Herald.)

The promoters of the $5,000,000 bonus raid made a move in the Senate to-night which they hope will induce President Harding to sign the McCumber measure.

Just as the Senate was about to adjourn, and after most of the anti-bonus Senators had left the Chamber, a Democratic suggestion which was acclaimed "an inspiration"—but which probably will turn out to be merely a rush of blood to the head—was adopted by a rising vote of 32 to 1.

The glory of refusing to be a party to the deception plan belongs to Senator Harry S. New (Ind.). His vote was the only one cast in opposition to it.

The suggestion that a way had been found to get around the objections raised by President Harding and Secretary Mellon and also the taxpayers to the bonus scheme originated in the resourceful mental machine of Senator Furnifold Simmons of North Carolina. It was in the form of an amendment designed to meet one criticism of the President to the McCumber bill, that it does not make provision for raising the money to pay the bonus claims.

Text of the Amendment.

The amendment was as follows:

There are hereby appropriated such amounts as may be necessary to carry out of the fund of titles 4 and 5 of this act to be paid out of the fund of titles 4 and 5 of this act to be a first charge upon the interest received by the United States on obligations of foreign governments. If at any time the amount of such interest is not sufficient to meet the appropriation hereby made the same shall be paid out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

President Harding has repeatedly declared he did not approve of any legislative project to use the principal or interest of the foreign debt until the discovery of the North Carolina Senator—revised and edited by Mr.
Lodge, Mr. Leavitt and Mr. Townsend —would "meet the situation."

Prediction of Approval.

Consequently there was considerable optimism reflected in the predictions made by Senatorial supporters of the bonus that the President could not now possibly have any objection to the McCumber bill. That, of course, remains to be seen. It was the opinion of anti-bonus Senators as well as a member of those who are inclined to favor the raid that the product of the bi-partisan combination headed by Mr.
Lodge and Mr. Simmons would not meet anything at all—except a veto at the White House.

The majority of anti-bonus Senators held the scheme in such light esteem that they left the Senate while the vote was being taken on the features of the original Simmons suggestion was in progress. Some of the leaders in the opposition indicated that they would not pay any attention to it, no confident were they that it would not improve the chances of the Mc-Cumber bill at the White House.

The trump card of the bonus group in the Senate was played at the end of a debate that continued all day and the net result of which was another "improvement" that will probably help along a veto. Twenty-two Senators made speeches on the bonus bill, but not all of them. When they quit for the day it looked as if the battle over the bonus might enter a third phase to-morrow and be voted on before adjournment, or, at the latest, on Thursday. After that it will be sent to a conference which is expected to meet to-morrow.

N. J. Girls in Motor Car Make 9,000 Mile Trip

AFTER an automobile tour of 9,000 miles, the Misses Pearl and Grace Mackey, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong Mackey of near Belvidere, N. J., have returned home. They left Belvidere June 28, and were on the road sixty-two days. After leaving Chicago they drove to Milwaukee, to the Dakotas, to Montana, to Yellowstone Park, to Seattle, through Oregon to San Francisco, to Los Angeles and Long Beach.
In their travel through twenty-four States, camping out every night, they were never molested.
Miss Pearl Mackey, aged 24, who is a teacher in the Paterson school, drove the car. Grace, 15, is a pupil of the Belvidere High School.

PARK BENJAMIN LEFT $1 TO MRS. CARUSO

Also Cut Off His Four Other Children as 'Undutiful' and 'Parasites.'

ADOPTED DAUGHTER HEIR

Anna Bolchi Benjamin May Get Nearly $500,000 After Trust for Widow Ends.

The five children of the late Park Benjamin, including Mrs. Dorothy B.
Caruso, widow of Enrico Caruso, have been virtually cut off from their father's estate by the terms of his will, which was filed for probate yesterday. From an estate which is said to be valued at approximately $500,- 000 each receives $1. The children will contest the will.

Miss Anna Bolchi Benjamin, who was adopted by Mr. Benjamin in December, 1919, and for seven years was a member of the household, may eventually receive all but about $32,- 500 in cash and certain real estate and oil paintings, if the will is sustained as drawn. The residuary estate, which is believed to comprise the bulk of the property left by Mr. Benjamin, is left in trust for his wife, Mrs. Ida E. Benjamin of Interpines, Goshen, N. Y. At her death it is bequeathed, with any other trusts which may have lapsed, to Miss Anna Benjamin "absolutely and forever."

Speaking for his brother, Romen, and three sisters, who are understood to be united in opposition, Park Benjamin, Jr., said last night at his home that probate of the document will be contested. He indicated that the financial provisions of the will did not evoke such surprise as his father's language in explaining the virtual disinheritation of his children.
That his father should be "so vindictive," he said, was not expected.

Assaults His Children.

Writing the document by his own hand, Mr. Benjamin, Jr., dismissed his children with a single bequest "because of their continuing behavior, undutiful and unfaithful conduct toward me."

"I conceive it my right," he wrote, "to dispose of my estate to those who have aided, comforted, and assisted me rather than to those who have acted less as children than as parasites, and who have been the cause of the loss of my estate and my property."

The will was drawn May 11, 1920, when, in Mr. Benjamin's own words, he was "in sound mind and memory," and he was "in good health and actively engaged in the practice of the law."

Miss Anna Bolchi Benjamin, the largest apparent beneficiary, receives $500,000 in cash and a variety of personal property, including a piano and pianola, paintings and pictures, furniture, jewelry and Mr. Benjamin's library, both in his home at 270 West Seventh third street and in his office at 165 Broadway.

Mrs. Gertrude T. Porter, who is said to have been Mr. Benjamin's confidential secretary in his law office, receives $15,000 in cash and premises at 974 East Eighteenth street, Brooklyn. Miss May T. McGarry of Paterson, N. J., who is said to have been a typist in the Benjamin office, gets $2,500, according to the will. Both bequests are made "in cordial recognition of long and faithful service."

Mr. Benjamin left $5,000 in trust for the benefit of his sister, Miss Susan Edith Benjamin of Port Jervis, N. Y., and $10,000 in trust to Mrs. Jerome A.
Tuck for the maintenance and education of her children, John and Marjorie Clark. Oil paintings of his father, grandfather and grandmother were bequeathed to the New York Historical Society.

His Adopted Daughter.

The following clause—the sixth—contains the bequest to the five children.
"I, the undersigned, do hereby bequeath to my adopted daughter, Mrs. Gertrude T. Porter, the sum of $15,000 in cash and
